SAIGON CITY TOUR

Spirit Of The Tour

Saigon - an over 300 years old and beautiful city of Vietnam, known as nicknamed "The pearl of the far East" and witnessing many times of rise and fall of nation. Going to this circuit, it will take you on a trip, which you can immerse in the history by the historical architectural constructions.

Detailed Itinerary

In the morning, we start visiting

- The War Remnant Museum is the first site of circuit, preserving many of informations, images and weapons, etc... where you can learn more of Vietnamese's proud history.
- Transfer to China town, visit Thien Hau Temple, built in the early 19th century by the Cantonese congregation. Free time walking and sightseeing in Cho Lon.

Have lunch, take a rest.

- Visit Re-unification Palace, this is a fascinating former government building where Vietnam War memories are preserved.
- Then, visit the Notre Dame Cathedral and the General Post Office, which are ancient constructions, lying harmoniously in the middle of many modern skyscraper complexes.
- Transfer to the Ben Thanh Market, where you can observe the busy trading of local people and various types of traditional handicrafts, textiles, "Ao Dai" as well as the real Vietnamese food.

Dinner and take free time to walk and see the Saigon trade streets: Dong Khoi, Nguyen Hue...discover the local people's life, shopping, take photos...
